

CINEMA VERDE ENVIRONMENTAL FILM AND ARTS FESTIVAL

February 24 - March 2, 2012

So rascally in tone you might expect "yo-ho-ho's" and festive eyepatches, "Confessions of an Eco-Terrorist" chronicles filmmaker Peter Jay Brown's three decades of adventures with the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society, which goes around the globe ramming illegal fishing boats and otherwise making itself obnoxious wherever marine environmental crimes are committed.

For more festival and movie trailer information please check the Cinema Verde Film Festival website:

<http://www.cinemaverde.org>

All films will be presented at the Cinema Verde Villa East Theater, 301 N. Main St., Gainesville, <http://www.celebrations-villaeast.com/>

25 THOUGHT-PROVOKING
FILMS & DOCUMENTARIES
STUDENT FILM COMPETITION
ECO ART WALK
FARMERS' MARKET FILM NIGHT
CELEBRATE NATURE FAIR

Dog in the Manger

Selva Rica follows a young Bora-Huitoto painter as he helps his Peruvian community resist the encroaching Petrol Company.

Confessions of an Eco-Terrorist

Director Peter Jay Brown presents this film about the escapades of the notorious Sea Shepherd crew.

Deep Green

Deep Green presents the best applications in energy efficiency, green building, de-carbonizing transportation, sustainable agriculture, renewable energy, smart grids, and forest restoration.

Scarred Lands and Wounded Lives

Charting the environmental impact of war.

Pipe Dreams

Across the heartland of America, farmers and landowners are fighting to protect their land, their water, and their livelihood in what has become the most controversial environmental battle in the US today: the Keystone XL Pipeline.

Join us and meet directors, talk with filmmakers and neighbors and learn the truth about green.

See more Cinema Verde Film selections at:
<http://www.cinemaverde.org>

Cinema Verde Environmental Film and Arts Festival Tickets are $5 & $7
Advance Tickets Are Available at: <http://www.cinemaverde.org>